“ I remember Peggy as a boundless bundle of energy, I don't think she ever slept or could ever see over the steering wheel of a car! A never-ending smile and a distinctive happy laugh (like her daughter Ginny, my dearest friend, inherited from her). Peggy never said no to volunteering or organizing anything and everything, and never expected anything in return. Endless Sunday suppers at her house with Ginny and family, and what a cook! It's a wonder I didn't weigh a 1,000 lbs by the time I got out of high school! Her home was my home away from home anytime of day. Peggy guided many of us through those "growing-up" times. She was a truly an amazing woman, mother, grandmother, and friend. I will miss her.

“ I remember Mrs. Peoples as such a vibrant little lady. She was quick to laugh and passed on to daughter Ginny, my beloved sister-in-law, her skill as a cook. She took such excellent care of Lindsay and Stacey, her beautiful granddaughters. My sympathy is with them and the rest of the family at this time.
